

AUSTRALIAN ISLAMIC EDUCATION CONFERENCE

ANNUAL AUSTRALIAN ISLAMIC SCHOOLING CONFERENCE Continuity and Change: Envisioning the way forward for Islamic Schooling in the West

Islamic schools are growing rapidly in western countries. How much do we really know about the success of 'Islamic' schools in western contexts?

With an impressive line-up of international and national speakers, Continuity and Change: Envisioning the way forward for Islamic Schooling in the West is sure to offer valuable and practical insights into the future of Islamic schooling in the West.

Conference themes:

- Vision and purpose in Islamic schools
- Attaining the 'Islamic' in Islamic schools
- Effectiveness, relevance & contextualisation of Islamic & Arabic studies
- Worldview and the educative process
- Traditional vs. contemporary pedagogical approaches
- Curriculum models – toward a holistic model?
- Teacher training

Register at www.griffith.edu.au/conference/islamic-education-conference/registration

National Centre of Excellence in Islamic Studies

Griffith University

In collaboration with Al Siraat College, Melbourne

20th & 21st February, 2016

Melbourne Convention & Exhibition Centre

1 Convention Centre Place, South Wharf VIC 3006

The Inaugural Australian Schooling Conference, run in conjunction with Al Siraat College, is supported by the Australian Government through the Council for Australian – Arab relations (CAAR) of the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade.

AL SIRAAAT

Australian Government

Key Note Speakers

International

Dr Nadeem Memon

Dr Abdullah Trevathan

Dr Freda Shamma

Ms Omaira Alam

Mufti Aasim Rashid

Professor
Mohammed Abdalla

Mr Dylan Chown

Local Speakers

