

Student Code of Conduct

Ethics, Standards, & Expectations

It Starts With Me | Respectful relationships | Responsible Citizenship

The servants of the Rahman (the All-Merciful) are those who walk on the earth gently.
(Surah Furqan 25:63)

Abu Darda' Radiyallahu 'anhu narrates that Nabi Sallallahu 'alaihi wasallam said: There will be nothing heavier on the Scale than good conduct. (Abu Dawud)

In order to ensure Al Siraat College remains a safe and positive learning environment, and that we remove the disruptions to student learning, students of Al Siraat College are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that reflects both our Islamic Tradition and our College Values. Students are therefore expected to comply with the standards of conduct as outlined in this Code of Conduct.

These standards of conduct apply to all learning contexts, including learning areas, recreational areas, College and personal property, sporting events, the Musalaah, assemblies, excursions and camps, travelling to and from school, social media, work experience and school events.

Students are required to:

- 1 Speak and act respectfully to other students, staff, parents, & visitors;
- 2 Express themselves in a respectful and responsible manner;
- 3 Uphold the College's values at all times;
- 4 Follow staff instructions and cooperate with teaching processes inside the classroom;
- 5 Care for, and respect, school property;
- 6 Be punctual and attend all classes;
- 7 Keep a clean and tidy school environment;
- 8 Act in a safe manner towards others;
- 9 Respect different views, cultures, and religions;
- 10 Be organised, prepared for lessons, and ready to learn;
- 11 Support a culture of care within the College;
- 12 Wear the school uniform at school and at school events, as per the uniform guidelines;
- 13 Observe personal hygiene standards;
- 14 Observe the required respectful behaviour and respect the sense of occasion during the prayer program, assemblies and school events.
- 15 Comply with all safety policies and procedures in place at the School;
- 16 Comply with the College's social media policy, which details etiquettes and boundaries of social media use.

Students must not

- 1 Use violence of any kind at any time;
- 2 Interrupt or disrupt a teacher during classroom instruction and learning activities;
- 3 Discipline or reprimand another student;
- 4 Bully or harass students, staff, volunteers, contractors and visitors to the school;
- 5 Take a photo or video recording of another student without permission;
- 6 Post a photo or video recording of another student on social media without consent;
- 7 Smoke cigarettes or e-cigarettes (vaping);
- 8 Bring weapons or unsafe, dangerous or inappropriate equipment or materials to school.

Students should understand that there are consequences which flow from all behaviours. Consequences of student behaviours which are unacceptable may include verbal reminders, warnings, additional duties and detentions, suspension and expulsion. In addition, consultation with parents and student counselling may be required. The College aims at all times to be fair and consistent whilst appreciating that every situation also needs to be judged on its own merits.
